Directives for Guests and Workers

“If an Ahmadi truly understands the blessings of Jalsa and then makes every effort to receive these blessings and accumulates the transformations that each annual convention brings about in him, then he will progress towards a new standard in Taqwa (righteousness) each year, which will eventually lead him to the point where the Promised Messiah (as) wished to see us.”

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad (aba)

- 01 Observe Zikr-e-Ilahi (Remembrance of Allah)
- 02 Listen to Speeches & Observe silence
- 03 Treat one another with mutual respect
- 04 Turn cell phones off during Jalsa proceedings
- 05 Fully cooperate with those on duty

- 06 Be Patient
- 07 Present a model of extreme courtesy to guests
- 08 Team leaders should endeavor to work with humility and lead by example
- 09 Manifest highest standards of hospitality

Message From Sadr Lajna Ima'illah USA

Assalamo Alaikum wa Rahmatullahe wa Barakatahu.

Dear Lajnat and Nasirats,

Our Jalsa Salana site is again being held at the beautiful Greater Richmond Conference Center. The Jalsa teams are trying their best to make our venue comfortable and adequate for your needs. It will require your patience and cooperation.

Jalsa Salana USA 2025 marks a milestone; Our 75 th Jalsa Salana. Alhamdulillah. When searching for the significance of the number 75. One may find on the internet the meaning:

"Numerologically, the number 75 can be understood by examining its individual digits. Number 7 is associated with spiritual growth and higher knowledge, while number 5 represents change, adventure, and freedom. Together, they create a harmonious energy that invites us to embrace our personal power and pursue self-improvement."

This is a befitting description for what we obtain from this spiritual gathering. Divinely guided, the Promised Messiah a.s. established in 1891 Jalsa Salana and announced that in the future it would be held regularly every year. Reflecting on a few of the aims and objectives and its blessings, the Promised Messiah (as) describes Jalsa Salana (Rules & Regulations of Tahrik Jadid Anjuman Ahmadiyya, 2016):

"...all friends, should try to the utmost of their ability to come here only for the sake of Allah to listen to His words and to participate in supplications."

"Such truths and words of wisdom should be heard during this meeting as are essential for the increase of faith, conviction and knowledge..."

"The newcomers into the Jamaat will come...and will be able to see the faces of their brothers (sisters) who preceded them in faith and this personal acquaintance will continually develop into closer friendship and love..."

"Prayers will be offered for the forgiveness of such brothers in faith who pass away during the year..."

"The purpose of the speeches at Jalsa Salana is also to increase the knowledge of the participants...They should listen to them carefully and remember the main points..."

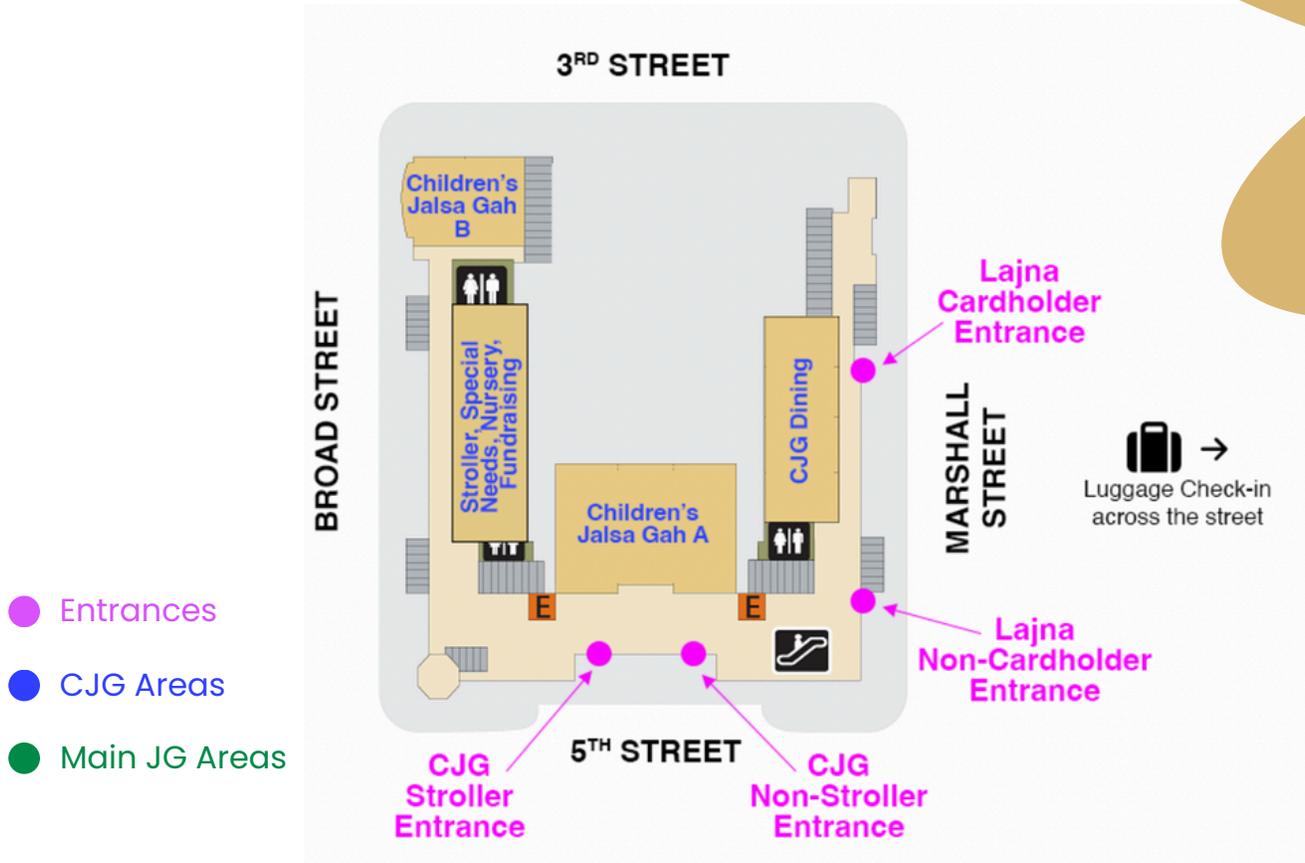

"Do not think that this Jalsa (of ours) is like ordinary human gatherings. The institution of Jalsa is exclusively founded on defending the truth and establishing the supremacy of the Lord of Islam and making it prevail over all other religions and ideologies."

As devoted Ahmadis we strive to bring about a reformation in ourselves first by taking advantage of whatever opportunity that nurtures our transformation. Please make every effort to be of those who take part in this special Jalsa Salana as attendees, volunteers, and/or members praying for the occasion, attendees, Khalifat, and humanity.

WasSalaam and eagerness to see you there,
Dhiya Tahira Bakr
Humbly serving as Sadr, Lajna Ima'illah USA
