

January 2025 Women's Interfaith - Dayton Ohio

Lajna of Dayton Ohio Jamaat held their monthly women's only interfaith event in a local synagogue. This is a women's interfaith group that was initiated by Dayton Lajna about eight years ago. Dayton Lajna has partnered with Jewish and Christian ladies of the Dayton community and hold a monthly interfaith event. They hold 7-8 events every year.

This January event was attended by around 50 ladies. The topic was Racism in our Faith Traditions. The three speakers presented the topic of racism from the perspective of their respective religions. The speaker from the Lajna side presented verses of the Quran, excerpts from the Farewell sermon of the holy Prophet Mohammad, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, as well as instances from the secular world, highlighting the message of unity and oneness that Islam promotes.

Seerat un Nabi Jalsa 2025 held in Dayton Ohio

On January 18, 2025, Lajna Imaillah Dayton had the honor of holding a Seerat un nabi event. The purpose of this event was to highlight the blessed life of the Holy Prophet of Islam, Mohammed, peace, and blessings of Allah upon him, through speeches and presentations done by Lajna members, Nasirat and pre-Nasirat.

Lajna Members and Nasirat enthusiastically participated in the event. They presented poems, speeches and presentations on the topic. They also addressed the topic of Khatamun- Nabiyyin from the Tabligh perspective and explained how this concept can be discussed with non-Ahmadi people.

Members also brought delicious food. Overall, the program was a success. Alhamdulillah.
