LAJNA IMA'ILLAH USA

Majlis Shura 2025

Implementation Report – Proposals 1 & 2

Report date:

Proposal	Recommendations	Implementation
1. Finance Run a comprehensive campaign to connect with members and create educational videos. Create a special form for members experiencing financial hardship to request a reduction in Chanda from Sadr Sahiba.	Recommendation Develop a comprehensive education campaign: • Create an easy-to-understand infographic (digital) and/or video about how chanda is used to help inspire participation. • The option to contribute more: Clearly communicate that members can pay above the minimum rate, giving according to their means. • Add an adjustment waiver: Come up with a simple form or process that members facing financial difficulties can go through to obtain National Sadr sahiba approval for a reduced rate.	• Presentation at the Lajna Mentoring Conference educating members on the various chandas and the importance of paying Chanda. • Poster on obligatory Chanda, and a chart on the importance of sacrificing in the way of Allah, posted on the website. • Draft Chanda-reduction form created and vigorously discussed at the LMC. Status: National Amila approved 10.21.26. Sent to local sadraat 10.22.2026.
2. General Create a robust program to strengthen our bond with Khilafat, especially engaging younger Lajna members.	1. Understand that relationship with Khilafat stems from relationship with Allah.	• Lajna Media Watch posted on Wasiyyat. • Waqifat-e-Nau 15+ encouraged to read The Will during Ramadhan 2026. • May 2026: Waqifat-e-Nau (4–21) discussed the importance of Khilafat in local classes.

Proposal	Recommendations	Implementation
	2. Reemphasize Khilafat Centenary Prayers and books.	• 58 chapters – Prayers: recited during meetings to build habit and memorization; reminders given at meetings and via newsletters, email and messaging apps. • 49 chapters – Books: held book clubs (incl. Umoor-e-Talibaat); completed The Philosophy of the Teachings of Islam, Al Wasiyyat, The Way of the Seekers, and others.
	3. Workshops, Jalsa speeches and Ijtema theme on women's advancement under Khilafat.	• 59 chapters: ◦ Younger Lajna assigned to discuss Huzoor's[aba] Friday Sermons in meetings. ◦ Workshops on the topic at meetings and local/regional ijtema'at. ◦ Discussions on the establishment of Lajna Ima'illah by Hazrat Khalifatul Masih II[ra] and its progress. • Lajna Media Watch series: "Muslim Women Making History" and "Revered Women in Islam."
	4. Share inspiring accounts of Khulafa with youth, seeing Khulafa as our advocates.	• 15 chapters shared clips from This Week with Huzoor[aba] and personal experiences at meetings, ijtema'at, social gatherings and book clubs. • National Lajna Sadr shared her experiences of meeting Huzoor[aba] at the West Midwest & Upper Midwest Regional Ijtema'at.
	5. Emphasize writing letters to Huzoor[aba].	• 18 chapters reminded members at meetings, New Year's Eve activities, Ramadhan 2026 and ijtema'at (135+ letters written), and shared free resources to write/submit letters. • Highlighted at an Umoor-e-Talibaat event. • USA Jalsa Salana 2026: youth wrote 44 letters. • Waqifat-e-Nau (4–21) encouraged to write letters in monthly local classes. • National Waqifat-e-Nau Summer Camp 2026 seminar on letter writing: 26 letters by girls aged 11–19.
	6. Video clips on the importance of Khilafat.	• 5 chapters shared/watched such videos. • Lajna Media Watch posted new videos: ◦ "Khilafat Then and Now" ◦ "What the Global Muslim Community is Missing"

Proposal	Recommendations	Implementation
		◦ "What is a Caliphate?" ◦ "Khulafa-e-Rashideen – The Rightly Guided Caliphs" ◦ "Qudrat-e-Sania – the Second Manifestation" • May 2026: Waqifat-e-Nau (4–21) watched and discussed a clip of Huzoor[aba] explaining the importance of Khilafat.
	7. Social media (podcasts).	• Pending – podcast recordings of National Lajna Sadraat sharing their experiences with Khulafa. • National Ijtema 2026: Muawina Sadr Media facilitated a Panel Q & A with National Sadr Dhiya Bakr sahiba, former National Sadr Saliha Malik sahiba and Honorary Member and former National Secretary Taleem sahiba their experiences.
	8. Build habits from home to increase bond with Khilafat.	• Waqifat-e-Nau and their mothers continuously encouraged to watch Huzoor's [aba] Friday Sermons. • Dec. 2025: Waqifat-e-Nau (4–21) discussed the value of MTA, an often-underutilized means of strengthening the bond with Khilafat. • 39 chapters held presentations/workshops teaching parents how to communicate with their children. • 42 chapters reported families attending Khilafat Day.
	9. Build connection to Khilafat as a community through UK Jalsa and Mulaqat with Huzoor [aba].	• 15 chapters encouraged in-person UK Jalsa attendance (one chapter: 25+ sisters attended). • Attendees shared their Jalsa and personal/family Mulaqat experiences to encourage others. • National Sadr USA requested a group Mulaqat in writing and during her official Mulaqat on July 27, 2026. Status: Huzur aba replied 10.04.2026, schedule currently not able, reconsider at a later date.
	10. Make programs more appealing to youth.	Well-received approaches: • Separating youth from markedly older members – Umoor-e-Talibaat events; June 2026 local Lajna meetings (National Tarbiyyat workshop "Decreasing Negativity Through Positive Behaviors: Peer Pressure / Anxiety & Depression"); National Waqifat-e-Nau Summer Camp (June 2026).

Proposal	Recommendations	Implementation
		• Delegating program topics and presentations to youth – local & regional Nasirat and Lajna Ijtema'at; Umoor-e-Talibaat programs; monthly Waqifat-e-Nau local classes. • Q&A segments with a candid, relatable speaker. • Pairing religious programs with a social experience (meal/potluck, scavenger hunt, exercise, outing) – Halqa meetings; Umoor-e-Talibaat events; local Waqifat-e-Nau gatherings; National Waqifat-e-Nau Summer Camp (June 2026). • Youth Hub at Jalsa Salana (2nd year) and Ijtema 2026: Interactive Islamic educational activities, social area, treats and handicrafts.
3. Annual Budget	Annual Budget is attached to this report.	